

Atwell Youth Awards 2019—Waste TO Art Project

The inspiration for WASTE to ART PROJECT influenced by Michelle Reader's art work.

SEVEN WASTED MEN

image may be subject to copyright

THE ARTIST USED THREE WEEKS WORTH OF EACH PERSON'S OWN RUBBISH TO MAKE THEM

STAGGERING THOUGHT don't you think?

You ARE the future—the planet Earth desperately needs you!

CHALLENGE—TURN YOUR FAMILY RUBBISH INTO ART

In your Waste TO Art Project

REUSE AND RECYCLE

(Recycling is technically a form of Reusing, but it refers more specifically to items that are discarded and broken down into their raw materials).

Unless you live a zero-waste lifestyle, there is always room for improvement when it comes to taking care of the planet. While the idea of reducing one's waste can be overwhelming, a great place to start is within the comfort of your own home.

Garbology is FUN, FUN!

Provide the Artist Statement (AYA printed Form) so we can follow your thoughts in 100 words
Artistic Licence is Encouraged