Fun with Faces

Let Bridget Seaton convince you that faces aren't scary!

Always wanted to create a portrait but too hesitant to try? In this workshop you will discover easy tricks and methods that will enable you to produce interesting portraits with a likeness. Develop your tonal skills through a torn newspaper collage and the effective technique of painting onto glass with a photo underneath as a guide. Both techniques encourage you to loosen up and simplify your use of tone. Suitable for students of any level even if you have never painted/drawn a face before!

Bring: an A5/A4 photo of yourself or a friend/family member (or work from a selection of provided images of famous faces).

Turn up and try something different
Bring yourself, your lunch and a relaxed attitude.
Wear comfortable old clothes and remember a challenge is good for the soul!
