

"Adventures in Colour" @ ATWELL SUMMER SCHOOL, 2018

Take a look at How Famous Artists See & Use Colour with Margaret Coxall

Widely known for her own use of vivid colour, Margaret is a registered Golden (Products) Artist Educator and has studied "Understanding and Using Colour" at St Martins University of the Arts in London. Recently she was one of eighty artists from around the world invited by Golden Artist Colours Company to attend a conference in Florida, and to exhibit at the ART Miami-Basel Art Fair. Now she has just returned from 3 months in Europe where she has seen plenty of masterpieces at galleries from the National Gallery and Tate Modern in London to the Uffizi in Florence.....

*Here's a few of my faves...
Margaret C*

Margie has an incredibly eclectic taste in art, from the classical to the contemporary. She will take you on a fascinating and fun-filled journey through time. She'll share how some of the artists that have inspired HER have seen and used colour in their work. You'll see and try plenty of techniques from dots, dabs, swirls, patterns through to glowing underpaintings, washes and glazes ...
