

"Adventures in Colour" @ ATWELL SUMMER SCHOOL, 2018

Migara Ramanayake says

"They say a picture tells a thousand words. For me it is not so much about making the art but telling the story through my work."

At our January Summer School come and experience colour with Mig. He's running

2 half day Drawing Workshops

where he'll look at two ways to use colour, monochromatic and polychromatic (as well as some basic drawing theory) to help YOU tie colour into your drawing.

18th Jan take a look at the world of monochrome, learn about shading, line making and other skills needed to draw.

25th Jan step into colour with colour pencils, learn about how to use colour in a drawing and some basic colour theory.

Thursday 18th and 25th January, 10am – 1pm each day

$50 per workshop or $90 for both, all materials supplied (discounted by 10% for MCAA mbrs)

Earlybird prices apply for MCAA members who pay in full by Dec 22 (another 10% off)
